Sheryl Roush is an internationally adored inspirational speaker, helping to rekindle spirit, hope and love. Her own story is one of strong faith, overcoming rape, twice contemplating suicide, filing business bankruptcy, and surviving domestic violence. Today, she encourages women who have experienced similar, including battered and homeless women, bringing hope into their lives.

She is a 9-time author and has presented throughout Canada and the US, as well as Southeast Asia, Australia, Middle East, and the U.K. She has on programs alongside: Olivia

Newton-John, Art Linkletter, Good Morning America's Joan Lunden, Mark Victor Hansen and Jack Canfield (Chicken Soup for the Soul), and Commander in Chief's Geena Davis.

Twice honored for her service to women in the community, Sheryl was crowned "Ms. Heart of San Diego" and is this year's "Queen of Hope."
